

Listening Guide

I. Romans

[1] Who was the letter written to?

[2] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[3] How did the writer and recipient(s) know each other? What was their relationship?

[4] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[5] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[6] What is a key statement or verse from the letter?

[7] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[8] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[9] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

II. 1 Corinthians

[10] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[11] Who was the letter written to?

[12] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[13] What questions does the letter address?

[14] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[15] How did the writer and recipient(s) know each other? What was their relationship?

[16] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[17] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[18] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

III. 2 Corinthians

[19] Who was the letter written to?

[20] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[21] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[22] How had the relationship between the writer and the recipients changed? Why?

[23] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[24] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[25] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[26] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

IV. Galatians

[28] Who was the letter written to?

[29] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[30] How did the writer and recipient(s) know each other? What was their relationship?

[31] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[32] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[33] What is a key statement or verse from the letter?

[34] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[35] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[36] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

V. Ephesians

[37] Who was the letter written to?

[38] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[39] How did the writer and recipient(s) know each other? What was their relationship?

[40] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[41] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[42] What is a key statement or verse from the letter?

[43] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[44] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[45] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

VI. Philippians

[46] Who was the letter written to?

[47] Who wrote the letter? When and from where?

[48] How did the writer and recipient(s) know each other? What was their relationship?

[49] What was the writer's purpose for writing?

[50] What is the letter's big idea or theme?

[51] What is a key statement or verse from the letter?

[52] How is the letter organized? (Usually two or three points):

[53] How does this letter contribute to the message of the New Testament?

[54] How can the message of this letter be applied to believers' lives today?

Reflection

Record one new fact or insight you discovered in this lesson.

Application

Do you know a believer or body of believers who may need to hear the message of one of these epistles? Write them a letter in your own words that communicates what the epistle writer wanted to communicate.