

COURSE SYLLABUS

NT218: Matthew - Mark: Two Presentations of Jesus

Course Lecturer: Craig Blomberg, PhD

Course Description

Matthew - Mark: Two Presentations of Jesus introduces students to the Gospels as literature and then focuses in on the gospels of Matthew and Mark. Students will study the specific purposes of each book and how the writers told the account of Jesus' life to accomplish their unique goals.

Course Objectives

1. To introduce students to survey information related to the New Testament
2. To help develop critical and practical aptitudes in understanding the Bible
3. To provide scholarly information that will foster a better understanding of the historical and biblical context of the New Testament

Accessibility

If you have particular accessibility needs, please contact the CUGN Registrar at the beginning of the course. This will allow us to work directly with you to make efforts to accommodate your situation and ensure as full as possible accessibility to the course.

Academic Honesty

At CUGN, we believe all we do is “as unto the Lord” and we thus hold to a high academic standard of honesty; we do not tolerate plagiarism and cheating. Students found guilty of any form of academic dishonesty face consequences ranging from interaction with the Academic Dean to expulsion from CUGN.

Quizzes and Exams: Any student found guilty of cheating on a quiz or exam will automatically receive a score of zero for that quiz or exam. A second offense will result in automatic course failure and possible disciplinary action and/or expulsion from CUGN. Please view the CUGN Academic Catalog for a full definition and examples of cheating.

Plagiarism: If a student’s work is found to be plagiarized, consequences will vary depending on the nature of the plagiarism.

If an offense is deemed unintentional, the student will have an opportunity to resubmit the work. A second offense will result in an automatic score of zero for that assignment, which may also result in failure of that course.

More serious plagiarism offenses could result in automatic course failure, disciplinary action, or expulsion from CUGN. Please view the CUGN Academic Catalog for a full definition and examples of plagiarism. If you have questions about plagiarism, or would like to request resources for learning how to avoid plagiarism, please contact our Registrar’s Office at registrar@cugn.org or toll free at (888) 487-5376 ext. 3.

Course Methods

Throughout this course, a number of methods will be used to engage the students in learning and processing information, interacting with other students (when possible), and applying the learning to their lives. These methods include the following:

Media/Materials

The course will include media presentations of lectures and supplementary materials to be viewed and/or read throughout the lessons of the course.

- Video-based teaching

If you do not have the bandwidth required to view the video, we provide the option of listening to the lesson or reading the lesson from a transcript.

- Multisensory learning

For students who wish to use a medium other than video, we provide the option of reading the lesson from a transcript of the teaching video (found in the Class Time activity). Students can choose the medium (or combination of media) that most closely aligns with their individual learning styles.

- Readings and other media

Students should have a copy of the Bible available in order to read the complete books of the Bible assigned in each lesson. In addition, Scripture passages are linked to online Bible tools for convenience. These online resources also provide an opportunity for students for whom English is a second language to read the Bible passages in one of numerous international translations available.

For all other required reading assignments, CUGN provides the texts for this course in a downloadable Adobe® PDF format.

Interaction

Whether sitting in a traditional classroom or studying from a distance, students benefit from interaction and collaboration with other students. In order to meet this need in distance theological education, CUGN offers structures and resources to encourage effective community interaction in this course.

Response Time

This forum fosters peer-to-peer interaction in a global, threaded discussion. Students are required to respond to relevant questions posted by the instructors; students are also encouraged to read and respond to the posts of fellow students.

Reflection

Through journaling and the use of interactive exercises, CUGN provides many opportunities for students to reflect on what they have learned, what they believe, and where they are challenged. The goal of these reflections is personal spiritual growth and transformation.

Blog

Many of the assignments ask students to record their thoughts in a course blog. Blog entries can be viewed only by the student and by the site administrator, and are not graded.

Lesson Objectives

At the end of each lesson, students should be able to accomplish the objectives listed below.

Lesson 1: Is the New Testament Really the New Testament?

- Explain the disciplines of textual criticism and what they contribute to our confidence in the validity of the New Testament books.
- Explain the process used to recognize which books to include in the New Testament.
- List and describe various disciplines used in New Testament studies.
- Exhibit increased confidence and skill in the study of the New Testament.

Lesson 2: Matthew - Mark: Two Stories of Jesus

- Discuss authorship, audience, dating, and purpose for writing Matthew and Mark.
- Name and explain the major themes and outlines of Matthew and Mark.
- Explain the ways in which Matthew and Mark each portray Jesus and why they did so.
- Gain greater appreciation for the amazing person Jesus Christ is.

Lesson 3: The New Testament as God's Revelation

- Explain how the doctrines of grace and inspiration inform our understanding of New Testament authority.
- Define and use the disciplines of hermeneutics and exegesis to guide the study of New Testament books.
- Name, explain the meaning of, and apply five critical methodologies to New Testament study.
- Develop greater confidence in the New Testament's authority and in the ability to interpret Scripture.

Course Requirements

In order to receive credit, the student must complete the course requirements within a 90-day period. Those requirements include:

- Viewing the Class Time lectures for each lesson
- Reading Bible passages as assigned for each lesson
- Reading the Bible commentary sections as assigned for each lesson
- Participating in the Response Time forum
- Becoming familiar with Glossary terms
- Keeping a blog in response to reflection questions
- Taking three quizzes and a final examination, scoring a 70% or higher average

Additional information about these requirements is provided below.

CLASS TIME

The Class Time section of the course includes the following:

- Lesson Goals: The Lesson Goals describe the learning outcomes you should achieve by the end of the course.
- Adventuring Through the Bible by Ray Stedman: Adventuring Through the Bible is provided for your convenience. If you prefer a different approach, feel free to use a Bible commentary of your choosing. If you are taking the course for credit or certification, however, please let our Registrar know the commentary and format you are using so your reading can be validated offline. Please note: In order to balance the number of required readings throughout the course, the readings assigned from Adventuring Through the Bible may not always align directly with the Scripture readings for each lesson.

Lesson 1: Between the Testaments

Lesson 2: Jesus and His Church

Lesson 3: Behold Your King!

- Bible reading: The books of the Bible covered in this course should be read completely at least once.

Lesson 1: Matthew 19-28

Lesson 2: Mark 1-8

Lesson 3: Mark 9-16

- Additional Resources: Within Class Time you will find a link to Additional Resources provided to supplement your learning. These Additional Resources can also be accessed outside of Class Time, from your main course page. They are described in detail later in the syllabus.
- Lectures: The lessons in this course include 25–30 minutes of lecture. These instructional lectures are required viewing, and can be watched as many times as needed. The same content is available in a text file (PDF) (located in the Class Time activity) for students who can benefit from this alternative media. Each lecture includes an ungraded quiz that students can use to test their knowledge along the way.

Lesson 1: Is the New Testament Really the New Testament?

Lesson 2: Matthew - Mark: Two Stories of Jesus

Lesson 3: The New Testament as God's Revelation

- Philip Yancey devotionals: The lessons in this course contain related devotionals narrated by well-known author, Philip Yancey. These devotionals (required viewing) highlight the people, events, and the consequential circumstances from selected passages covered in each lesson and also provide a devotional element to this study.

Lesson 1: Philip Yancey – Signs of Life (Matthew 27)

Lesson 2: Philip Yancey – Turning Point (Mark 8)

Lesson 3: Philip Yancey – Miracles and Magic (Mark 3)

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

These resources are provided to supplement your learning.

- Shockwave® interactive exercises: Each of the lessons in this course may contain interactive exercises that are formatted in the Adobe Shockwave format (Free Adobe Shockwave browser plug-in required).

Lesson 1

- Intro to Canon Part 1
- Intro to Canon Part 2
- Canon
- Books of the New Testament
- New Testament Book Order
- New Testament Content

Lesson 2

- Mark - Overview
- Jesus' Twelve Disciples

Lesson 3

- Interpretation Introduction
- Interpretation Study
- Interpretation Review

RESPONSE TIME

Participants will interact with other students worldwide in an ongoing asynchronous threaded forum of several course topics in each lesson.

In order to get the fullest benefit from the Response Time forum, students should complete the Response Time assignment after they have completed Class Time. Then they should return to Response Time after finishing the lesson to see how others respond. The following steps are instructions to the students for completing the assignment:

- Enter Response Time.
- Read the instructions and click the Response Time topic.
- Read the Response Time question and share your thoughts with others.
- Take the time to read other students' postings.

CUGN requires that students' Response Time posts consist of at least 2 to 3 well-developed paragraphs. Think of posts as mini-essays, where you present an idea and support that idea with details, examples, personal experiences, etc.

Objective: to develop critical thinking skills through personal interaction with the content of the course and the responses of others within a diverse community of learners.
