

COURSE SYLLABUS

Ministering to People in Pain

Course Lecturers: Alice Mathews, PhD and Karen Mason, PhD

Course Description

All of us experience pain in different ways at different times in our lives. For most of us, pain is a common experience that we don't want. In fact, we go to great lengths to try to avoid it. But when we find we can't avoid it, most of us need help in dealing with it. In this course, Dr. Alice Mathews and Dr. Karen Mason explain several types of interventions, which help us understand how we can come alongside people in pain and minister to them more effectively.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

1. Understand various definitions and causes of pain.
2. Define "minister" and explain how a minister comes alongside people in pain.
3. Learn to make sense of life's negative experiences in light of Who we believe God is.
4. Identify and employ various methods of intervening in people's lives in order to help them.

Course Lecturers

Alice Mathews, PhD

Education:

- Iliff School of Theology/University of Denver, PhD
- Michigan State University, MA
- Bob Jones University, BA

Teaching Career:

- Academic Dean, Christian University GlobalNet
- Lois W. Bennett Distinguished Professor Emerita of Educational and Women's Ministries, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
- Academic Dean, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary

Other Career Highlights:

- Co-host, Discover the Word radio program with Mart DeHaan and Haddon Robinson
- Frequent teacher and conference speaker throughout North America and other parts of the world
- Involved since 1970 in women's ministries both in North America and overseas, including 17 years spent serving in churches in France and Austria

Publications:

- Author of several books of Bible studies for women, as well as a homiletics textbook, Preaching That Speaks to Women, and a marriage textbook, Marriage Made in Eden, co-authored with M. Gay Hubbard
- Contributed chapters to eight other edited volumes

Karen Mason, PhD

Education:

- University of Denver, MA, PhD
- Denver Seminary, MA
- Wheaton College, BA

Teaching Career:

- Associate Professor of Counseling and Psychology, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
- Teacher at a number of schools in Colorado, as well as overseas at Murree Christian School in Pakistan and Hope Academy in Haiti

Other Career Highlights:

- Deliverer of direct care services in private practice
- Director of Quality Systems, Mental Health Center of Denver
- Manager, Office of Suicide Prevention, Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment
- Member, American Psychological Association and the American Counseling Association

Course Methods

The lecture content for each lesson is provided in three easy-to-use formats: video, audio, and PDF text. Students can choose the medium (or combination of media) that most closely aligns with their individual learning styles.