

COURSE SYLLABUS

ML113: Principles of Leadership Development

Course Lecturers: Floyd Flake, James Meeks, A.R. Bernard, Sr., Kenneth Ulmer, Efrem Smith

Course Description

Adapted from lectures delivered at Willow Creek's Leadership Summit by five of today's most influential leaders, this course offers principles of effective multicultural leadership. In this course, you will learn how to become a transformational leader, identify the enemies of a growing church, develop problem-solving strategies, resolve to complete your God-given mission, and effectively lead multicultural communities.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify models or stages of leadership that culminate in transformational leadership.
2. Describe the major enemies of a growing church.
3. Discuss keys to problem-solving.
4. Resolve to complete his/her God-given mission.
5. Understand effective leadership in multicultural communities.

Course Methods

The lecture content for each lesson is provided in three easy-to-use formats: video, audio, and PDF text. Students can choose the medium (or combination of media) that most closely aligns with their individual learning styles.