

COURSE SYLLABUS

Understanding the Old Testament

Course Lecturer: Bruce K. Waltke, ThD, PhD

Distinguished Professor of Old Testament at Knox Theological Seminary

Course Description

The Old Testament is often viewed as antiquated, mysterious, and even irrelevant. In this course, Dr. Waltke shows how Old Testament theology is pivotal to the universal goal of redemptive history: the rule of God and the establishment of God's kingdom in all the earth. The course tracks salvation history as it appears in nearly every book of the Old Testament, and shows the vital relationship of the Old Testament to the New. Throughout the course, Dr. Waltke applies the doctrines of kingdom and salvation to the Christian life.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course, you should be able to do the following:

- Analyze the theological universal goal of the Old Testament as it relates to the theme of salvation history.
- Discuss the books of the Old Testament in light of their contribution to salvation history.
- Develop an awareness of the history surrounding the message of the Old Testament.
- Correlate the salvation history of the Old Testament with the New Testament doctrines of kingdom and salvation.
- Be familiar with the relevant resources on Old Testament theology.
- Value the Old Testament as the key to understanding God's plan for His people.
- Apply the principles from the Law, Prophets, and Writings to life and ministry.
