

COURSE SYLLABUS

Your Kingdom Come: The Doctrine of Eschatology

Course Lecturer: Matthew Friedeman, PhD

Professor of Evangelism and Christian Education at Wesley Biblical Seminary

Course Description

The topic of eschatology, or the end times, has fascinated people for centuries. But what does the Bible say about this extraordinary subject? What future has God planned for his creation and his people? In this series, we examine what the Scriptures teach about the last days, including a variety of challenging topics, such as the afterlife, the general resurrection, and the consummation of Christ's messianic kingdom in the new heavens and new earth.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course, you should be able to do the following:

- Trace God's goal for creation throughout history.
- Describe the present, intermediate and final states of human beings.
- Explore the final events of history from Christ's return and the millennium to the new creation.

Course Lecturer

Matthew Friedeman, PhD

Education:

- University of Kansas, PhD
- Asbury Theological Seminary, MDiv
- University of Kansas, MA
- University of Kansas, BA

Teaching Career:

- Professor of Evangelism and Christian Education, Wesley Biblical Seminary

Other Career Highlights:

- Ordained Nazarene minister
- Founding pastor, Day Spring Community Church in Clinton, MS

Course Methods

The lecture content for each lesson is provided in three easy-to-use formats: video, audio and PDF text (if available). Students can choose the medium (or combination of media) that most closely aligns with their individual learning styles.